

MESSIN' WITH MIKE.

WHAT WON'T YOU TALK ABOUT?

Religion and faith are not just about “Church-y” stuff. Your faith should shape how you see the world, how you watch the news, what you talk about at coffee, how you interact with people at school and work – in short, your faith should influence anything and everything you do. Messin’ With Mike is a fun way to practice using our faith to talk about almost anything you can think of. Plus, you get to mess with Mike – how could you pass up an opportunity like that?!

Who: Open to everyone

What: Each week someone presents Pastor Mike with a “something” in a shoebox (as long as it isn’t or didn’t used to be living) – anything from a random object to a newspaper headline. Mike has a week to come up with some way to lead a discussion about the mystery item through the lens of faith.

When: In between services, beginning October 4th. Please sign up by September 13th so that we know how big a room we’ll need.

Where: To Be Announced, depending on numbers.
