GRATITUDE IS THE REASON FOR THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving is three (3) weeks away. To keep our children focused on the reason for Thanksgiving, parents may wish to talk with their children and make a list of all the things they are grateful for in this season of gratitude. Post the list where you can see it every day and add to the list throughout the week. Pray with your child/ren and give thanks for all your blessings. As a special action of gratitude, collect a few of their clothes or toys to donate.

Thank you so much to all of our families who continue to support our Children's Ministry by bringing your child/ren, volunteering and by encouraging the adults and youth that volunteer with your child/ren. We hope that you and your child/ren find a community of support here and will begin or continue to build meaningful relationships with other parents, families, children and Jesus Christ.

COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS

Think back over the past 5-10 years. What are you most grateful for during that time period?

Now, think back over the past year. What are you most grateful for during that time period?

Now, what about the past week? What are you most grateful for during that time period?

1 Chronicles 16:34 tells us that God is good. "O give thanks unto the LORD; for He is good; for His mercy endureth forever." Name a way that God has been good to you lately.

How often do you praise God?

Do you think that God is pleased with how you praise Him?

Name someone that God has placed in your life to be a blessing to you.

Now that you have reflected on how God has blessed you, choose a person this week and be a blessing to that person.
