

SMALL GROUP REGISTRATION

QUESTION AND ANSWER:

Why small groups?

Some things are just better when they are small. We want students to have the opportunity to get connected with other believers their age.

Who will be leading the small groups?

Small groups will be led by one adult leader (some with co-leaders) who will be responsible for facilitating the group's discussion and caring for the students in their group.

How will students be placed in small groups?

There will be both high school and middle school small groups and students will be placed in co-ed groups according to their age.

What is the length of each small group?

Small groups will be a committed group for the length of the school year and meet each Sunday morning from 9:00-10:00 am on the 3rd floor of EUM.

When do Small Groups begin?

Small groups kickoff on Sunday, September 7th. Please return registrations by Friday, August 29.

What curriculum will be used?

Each small group will be able to choose their curriculum according to the topics they would like to cover. When the groups meet for the first time on September 7, 2008 the small group leader will give the group options to choose from and they will decide together.

What is Confirmation?

Confirmation means to make one's faith firm. Through this class students (8-12th) are given the opportunity to learn more about the Christian faith and make a personal and public decision to become a follower of Jesus Christ. Students can also make the decision to become a member of EUM church.

What is Discipleship 101?

Discipleship 101 is an opportunity for students to develop stronger roots in the foundations of what it means to be a Christian. It aims to empower students to develop spiritual habits that will change their lives.
