Dear Pastor Jay and the First Christian Church,

Thank You

The family of Don Scott would like to thank the members of the church, Corbin Shepherd, Arlie Lammers and Pastor Jay for their many prayers, visits and cards during Don's recent illness and death. We would like to give a special thank you to the ladies who prepared the luncheon and to the choir and Karen Billingsley for the beautiful music. Daddy would be proud. Your kindness and love are sincerely appreciated.

Thank you, thank you and blessings for sending David to us. He did a fantastic job on the roof. We felt the cooling difference immediately. Walt and David got along so well that I went back to bed while they had some proper man carpenter talk.

opened sealer that someone can use. David did an excellent job. Walt made sure David had soda and water. I do believe Walt enjoyed having him here as much as getting the work done!

I felt that the Great Carpenter was listening to my prayers. We will get this money back so that David and the church can help someone else. There were two cans of un-

Again, thank you all so very much...we may get Walt to church yet!
