

Gods plan for the church in Ireland 27th November 2010

1. A new spiritual Structure

God is building a new spiritual structure within the Church in Ireland. A strong, steady, unbreakable structure that will mean many will be able to enter into spiritual experiences and encounters in the heavenly realms. The old has gone and the new has come! In this spiritual structure there will be safety, steadiness and protection for the children of God. A repair could not fix the old structure and a whole new spiritual structure designed to hold many and protect many children of God has been made. It will keep their steps firm, steady and strong and make the way into the heavenly realms more accessible.

2. Return to holiness through total commitment to God

The church returns to holiness by total commitment to God. By being responsible and accountable in every way. This is the way the church will rise again. No longer will the church not be honoured or treasured in Ireland. God's children will have more revelation of God's character and ways and it will come out of total commitment to God. The messes we have seen will be no more because there will be a love, honour and even treasuring of the bride of Christ in Ireland from God's children. This will be done through God's children being totally committed to Him.

3. The heart of the church will be truly shown in goodness and righteousness throughout the land.

There will be a change within the church. The church will not be seen to go the world's way but will be bold and brave in showing the goodness and righteousness of God. No longer will the church shrink back and hide their holiness and righteousness to avoid persecution. No! The brightness and goodness of the church will be seen in stark contrast to the darkness of sin and evil. The church in Ireland will shine brighter and stronger than any other time in its history. The church in Ireland will show God's heart and character to the people of Ireland. The church will shine brightly representing Him as lights in the darkness.

4. Finally at this time. God wants to bless His children more than we can imagine or even think.

God has been blessing His church but how much more will He bless it as the changes take place. He longs to bless his children more and more than ever before. The changes and transition has been taking place because God wants to pour his blessings, his spirit and his power into His church in a measure that we cannot even imagine and have never seen before. That is God's heart - to bless us because of His love and so we can also be a blessing to others.
