

Reach The Nations School of Ministry

STUDENT COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

RTN students should possess a commitment to excellence in every area of life, possessing a level of maturity that enables God to entrust them with the calling to which He has appointed them. Each RTN student is expected to commit to pursue a standard of excellence by doing the following:

- Daily spend time in God's presence through prayer, the Word of God, worship, and devotion
- Pursue academic excellence and integrity
- Cultivate positive social relationships
- Live a lifestyle that promotes peace and edifies the body of Christ
- Exercise good citizenship and stewardship
- Maintain as a way of life the New Testament standards of moral, ethical and spiritual purity
- Abide by the established standards of Reach The Nations Global Ministries Network and its School of Ministry, understanding that a disciplined lifestyle is an integral part of development.

Standard of Conduct:

Students will seek to walk in Kingdom character and power as children of light pleasing the Lord in every good work (Ephesians 5:1-12). This standard governs our personal and public life.

Attendance:

Students are expected to attend classes regularly and punctually. During any trimester, the maximum number of absences permitted is three (3) days. Exceptions to this policy will be made only for extreme circumstances and emergencies. If a student's absences and tardiness total more than twelve (12) days a school year, it is likely that the student will not be able to take the final exam and will not receive a final grade.

Discipline of Students:

The freedom of RTN School of Ministry environment requires a high level of self-management. Any student struggling to make wise choices will receive quick and direct confrontation, which is designed to help draw out the greatness within the student. Our staff and pastoral teams are trained and empowered to apply strength and grace in whichever areas necessary of students lives.

Withdrawal:

Any student who wishes to withdraw from Reach The Nations School of Ministry must arrange an appointment with the Student Life Director to discuss the reasons for withdrawing from the school. For tuition refund information, see the section under Financial Info.

Non-Discriminatory Policy:

It is the policy of Reach The Nations Global Ministries Network, Inc. including the School of Ministry function to provide equality of educational opportunity. The Corporation does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, sex, marital status, disability, veteran's status, national or ethnic origin. This nondiscrimination policy covers admissions, employment, and access to and treatment in school programs, services, and activities.

I have read and understand the Application Procedure, the Financial Information and upon acceptance I agree to abide by the Student Commitment of Excellence.
