

Tony Thomas is the Sr. Minister at Woodland Heights Christian Church in Crawfordsville, IN. He was born and raised in Miami, OK and received his education at Cincinnati Christian University.

The Thomases lived in Cincinnati, OH for 17 years before moving to Wabash, IN (eight years) and accepted the position at Woodland Heights in 2002. Woodland Heights is currently in a relocation project, having purchased 49 acres of land on the northeast side of Crawfordsville on State Road 47 North.

Thomas is an active member of the Crawfordsville Rotary Club, coaches cross country at Tuttle Jr. High, and basketball and track at Crawfordsville High School.

For seven years he wrote a weekly column for the Logansport Pharos-Tribune, the Paper of Montgomery County in Crawfordsville, and The Paper in Wabash. He is the author of A Smidgeon of Religion.

Tony and Christie have been married for 37 years, they have three grown daughters who are all married, and they are the proud grandparents of Emma, Marshall, Gabe and Brooklyn.

